CAUDLE-HILLE.

Pretty Home Wedding at Roaring Springs.

Mr. William Lyndon Caudle and Miss Mary Hille were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Dr. H. L. J. Hille, of Roaring Springs.

It was a beautiful home wedding and the house was appropriately decorated with flowers and with yellow and white, the colors of the bride's graduating class. The wedding march was played by Prof. O. G. Hille, of this city. Rev. J. W. Mitchell, of this city, performed the ceremony. Miss Mabel Hille, the bride's sister, and Miss Alice Coleman, were the bridesmaids, and the bride carried a bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The newly married couple went at once to the groom's home near Newstead, where a reception was given. Mr. Caudle is a prosperous young farmer. His pretty bride is a graduate of Bethel Female College.

SHOT IN BREAST.

One Negro Badly Wounded and Other Escapes.

Jordan Buchanan was shot and badly wounded by George McKinney late Thursday afternoon. The parties are colored and the trouble occurred on Sixth street. The ball entered Buchanan's breast, near the left shoulder, and ranged down. He was taken to his home on North Virginia street, where he lies in a serious condition. The wound is not thought to be necessarily fatal, however.

Buchanan says that McKinney snatched a cigar from his hand, when he asked him not to play with him that way. Buchanan then walked off, and was followed by McKinney. The trouble was then renewed and the shooting occurred. McKinney fled immediately and had not been located up to a late hour yesterday.

CONCRETE PAVEMENTS

Are Rapidly Coming Into Favor Here.

People are beginning to recognize the superiority of the concrete over the brick sidewalk. In the East scarcely anything else is put down now and the South is fast following suit. The time will come, after their lasting qualities are proven, when they will be used altogether. The Ninth-street Presbyterian church is replacing its old brick pavement with the concrete.

MARTIN—JONES.

Hopkins County People Married Here Yesterday.

Mr. S. A. Martin and Miss Carissa J. Jones, young people living near Madisonville, were married here yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Wyatt at his residence. The couple arrived here on the early morning train and returned on the next train north.

Penalty Goes On After Next Tuesday.

Next Tuesday will be the last day of October, and if your city tax is not paid by November 1st 6 per cent. penalty will be added. After November 30th the same penalty will be added to your county and State taxes.

Brass Band For Pembroke.

Pembroke is to have a brass band, says the Journal. At a meeting held Tuesday afternoon an organization was perfected with twenty members. The organization is composed of well known young gentlemen and the success of the undertaking is assured. Instruments will be ordered soon and practice will begin.

DAUGHTERS IN CONVENTION.

Bowling Green Doing the Honors In Great Style.

ATTENDANCE IS LARGE.

Meeting Most Successful In History of the U. D. C.

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 27.—The annual convention of the Kentucky Daughters of the Confederacy was called to order here yesterday at 10 o'clock with about seventy-five visiting delegates representing nearly every section of the State, in addition to the local Daughters in attendance.

Immediately after the call to order today, the address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. J. A. Mitchell, president of the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the response on behalf of the delegates was made by Mrs. Mary Walker Price, of Danville. Mrs. Basil Duke, the president, then read her annual report and this was followed by the report of the committee on credentials, the reports of the secretary, treasurer and other officers.

Thursday afternoon there was a memorial service in honor of Mrs. Mattie Bruce Reynolds, and in the evening a reception was given at the Elks' clubrooms by the local Daughters of the Confederacy. This was one of the most brilliant entertainments that has been given in Bowling Green for some time and a large number of Bowling Green people and visitors were present.

All indications are that the present meeting will be one of the most successful ever held by the Daughters in the state.

Race For President.

The chief interest in the convention lies in the election of officers, which will take place to-morrow morning, and there will be a spirited contest for the presidency. The real fight will be between Mrs. James Pryor Tarvin, of Covington, and Mrs. Roy McKinney of Paducah, though other names will be brought up. A notable feature was a historical paper by Mrs. Andrew M. Sea, of Louisville, the keynote of which was that the K. U. D. C. should take concerted action with regard to having an impartial history introduced into the public schools of the State. Mrs. Sea then gave another paper on the "Secession of Kentucky," a request for the paper having come from the floor. Reports from the standing committees followed.

NEED ROOM.

Keach Furniture Co. Will Make Large Additions.

The Keach Furniture Co. has leased the building in the rear of their present business house on Ninth street and will have it remodeled and shaped up for occupancy at once. The building extends to Eighth street, and when ready for stock the company will have much more room in which to conduct their large and increasing business. They will continue to occupy their present house, the new room being only an addition to their quarters. When the extra room is added they will then extend from Ninth to Eighth street.

Landerman-Peter.

B. L. Landerman, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Miss Alice Peters, of Olinstead, were united in marriage at the home of the bride Tuesday afternoon. The bride formerly lived at Oasky.

The Weather.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—For Kentucky: Saturday fair and colder.

WORK TO BEGIN

On Extension of L. & N. Trackage.

In the immediate future the L. & N. will begin the extension of their trackage on this side and beyond the river north of town. As we have before stated, the company will greatly increase their facilities for handling cars here by nearly doubling their side trackage. Then the tracks leading to the rock quarries are to be raised and more trackage put in. Besides, as forecasted in a recent issue, new tracks are to be laid beyond the river and an office established over there connected with the city office by telephone and telegraph. The greater part of handling freight cars will be done through the new office.

FATAL RESULT.

Louisa Girl Dies from Injuries Received on July 4.

Ashland, Ky., Oct. 26.—Miss Bessie Hale, the eight-year-old daughter of Ira Hale, who resides near Louisa, died here at the King's Daughters' Hospital, where she was brought for treatment.

On the night of July 4 last Miss Hale's sister was married, and during the charivari following the wedding Miss Hale was struck in the side by a door that was suddenly jerked open. One of her ribs was broken, and serious complications developed. Four operations were performed, but failed to bring relief to the unfortunate girl.

Geese Pass Over.

Several flocks of wild geese passed over the city this week, en route south, where they will spend the winter.

EPIDEMIC IS ENDED.

Fever Quarantine Raised and Business Resumed.

Cold Weather and Science Have Made War On Mosquitoes.

New Orleans, Oct. 26.—Anxiety to see the president has resulted in reopening practically the whole of Louisiana and Mississippi with a consequent revival of business activity. Fully one-half of the parishes in Louisiana have taken down the bars. There is great rejoicing along the Mississippi coast, and families are having reunions there that have been separated for months. Large excursions are coming from the coast to participate in the presidential ceremonies.

The removal of quarantines has resulted in a resumption of the levee building industry. Work has been progressing under difficulties, but will go forward under full pressure now.

President Souchon, believing the struggle over, has gone to Chicago on a vacation.

Reports from the county districts of Louisiana show that fever prevails now at very few points. In the city fewer than sixty cases are under treatment.

FELL FROM HACK

Under Heels of Horses and Was Badly Injured.

Tuesday afternoon, while returning from Murray, where he had been to sell notions on the street, H. P. Farris, the auctioneer, formerly of this city but now of Mayfield, met with a serious accident and one that may disfigure him for life. The team, a pair of western ponies, driven to a hack, suddenly lurched to one side and threw the front wheels of the vehicle into a deep rut. Mr. Farris was thrown to the ground and under the feet of the horses. This frightened the animals and they began to kick. As a result the face of the gentleman was terribly lacerated, his cheeks, nose and mouth being crushed almost to a jelly. He also sustained other serious injuries. The wounds, while quite painful, are not likely to prove fatal, but his escape from death was miraculous, and he will be laid up for some time.

Democratic nominee of the Christian-Hopkins district.

A traveling man who arrived here this week from Russellville is authority for the statement that the purchase of registration certificates is open and above board. He says he saw one man display a roll of $100 and publicly announce that he would give $100 for 20 certificates.
An opposition worker told him he would get into trouble, when the purchaser made a direct offer of $5 for his own certificate, in order to test the matter. The offer was not accepted.

It has been virtually settled that Prince Charles of Denmark will ascend the throne of Norway as King Haakon VII. The last independent Norwegian king was Haakon VI, who died in 1380. Prince Charles is the second son of Crown Prince Frederick of Denmark, and is 33 years old. In 1896 he married King Edward's youngest daughter, and they have one child, a son born two years ago.

Some one signing his circular "Committee on Secret Ballot" is flooding the mails with literature declaring the secret ballot to be in danger. Let us hope that it is. If we ever have a return to honest election, in Kentucky, the first step should be to abolish the present fraudulent system imported from Australia.

A state senator in Tennessee led a raid on a room in which his son was conducting a poker game and directed the arrest of the young man tion might not have been in order.

both sides admit that the election is close and doubtful. The ring ap-

A Woman Tramp.

A poorly clad woman, past middle age, was walking around the streets yesterday looking for a boy who came with her from Pembroke. She appeared before Judge Fowler, who advised her to go to her home in Jackson county, Ky. The Judge offered to give her a railroad ticket to Pembroke, but she refused to take it, saying "them things go mighty fast and I might get killed." When urged to take a ticket she replied that it wouldn't take long and she would walk back. Judge Fowler was nonplussed and had to let the woman go her way. She gave her name as Mrs. Spivey. She was not only elderly but seemed to have but little mind. She said she came here for help.

VERY SWELL

Was Marriage of Miss Wade
And Mr. Scullin.

St. Louis, Oct. 24.—The marriage of Miss Stella Marie Wade, daughter of Fetus J. Wade, President of the Mercantile Trust Company, and Chas.
J. R. Scullin, youngest son of John Scullin, street car magnate and one of the best known financiers in the West, was solemnized to-day in the New Cathedral chapel by Archbishop J. J. Glennon. Two hours before the arrival at the sanctuary of the invited guests a squad of police detailed to guard the entrance found it necessary to swing their clubs freely to keep a throng of curious people from invading the church.

Last night, while over $100,000 worth of wedding presents were being unpacked at the Wade residence, fire started in the basement. Prompt work by firemen extinguished the flames with small damage.

"Americans will find a cure for the evils that now beset them," is the keynote to the remarkable new series of articles, "Soldiers of the Common Good," by Charles Edward Russell—articles descriptive of the wheat experiments that are being tried the world over with the ideal democracy in view. Read Mr. Russell's stirring "Foreword," in the November Everybody's, with the prophecy that the issue of all great social experiments will be "the rise of the common people," and you will conclude that his sincere, sympathetic, unhackneyed story of the struggle of present-day humanity promises to be something vital to every American. The new series seems particularly to the point in connection with such a blunt, out-and-out story of corruption as Mr.
Lawson tells in this month's installment of "Frenzied Finance." Some unknown facts about William A.
Clark, of Montana; the story of H.
H. Rogers' "delivery of the United States Senate; and the true story of the collapse of the Globe Bank of Boston, are among the fragments of American financial history that Mr. Lawson now relates for the first time.

The variety of its subject matter makes this number of Everybody's one of international interest.

Three Deaths From Football.

The outcry against the unnecessary roughness in college football is heard on every hand, and, unless the rules are changed, the game is likely to be forbidden in many places altogether, says Philadelphia Record. The game as now played is not a good exercise for boys or for the average student.
It is too rough for any but a trained athlete. Fatalities seldom occur except to those who have neglected to properly prepare themselves for the contest. So far this year three deaths from football have been reported, all schoolboys, while four others have been seriously injured, two of the latter being men. Twelve other men have been more or less injured, showing that the rules must be changed to save the game.

Football Yesterday.

The football team of the Southern Normal School, of Bowling Green, came down yesterday to play the boys of South Kentucky College. The home team was in fine shape to meet its opponents at their new park east of the College. The game was in progress as we went to press, and of course the result could not be given.

Child Marriage In India.

More than 250,000 girls in India, five years of age or less, were already married when the last census was taken, and of these necessarily many have become widows. Between five and ten years the number of married girls was well over 2, 000,000; between ten and fifteen years it had risen to nearly 7,000,000, says the Chicago News.

Most of the widows of tender years become so before they know what widowhood means. It is only as they grow out of infancy that they learn the sad life to which they are condemned, a life of misery which is inconceivable to people of western countries, yet is enforced by Hindu customs.

Though the English law in India would recognize the legality of a remarriage of these youthful widows, inexorable custom forbids it, and its occurrence is rare. There were in India in 1901 nearly 426,000 widows under fifteen years of age, of whom nearly 20,000 were less than five years old.

Some Big Families.

The record in family numbers is believed to belong to Scotland. It is that of a Scotch weaver in the seventeenth century, whose wife bore him sixty-two children. Only twelve died in childhood, forty-six sons and four daughters living to be twenty-one and upward. This almost incredible record is said to be fully and absolutely authenticated.
Sir John Bowes and three other gentlemen each adopted and reared ten of this prodigious family.

A century ago there died in Jamaica a woman named Mills. Her age was given as 118, and she was followed to the grave by 295 of her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren—no fewer than sixty of whom, all named Ebanks, belonged to the regiment of militia for St. Elizabeth's parish.—Chicago Journal.

The Hicks Almanac For 1906.

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks' Almanac

Come to Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 24.—Several hoted horsemen from Europe arrived here today on the lookout for high-class horses, with which to increase their breeding interests abroad, and several days will be spent in Kentucky inspecting the local horse market. Count Malynski, of Russia, who owns one of the most pretentious breeding establishments in the land of the Czar, which is headed by the American horse Valentine, will likely purchase tro-ting bred stallions and mares. He has been on a tour of the United States for the past several weeks.
Other arrivals were Dr. Neilson and Count Pofonash, of Copenhagen, who are also on the lookout for stallions and mares.

New Pastor.

The Rev. A. J. Taylor, of Lebanon, Tenn., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Cumberland Presbyterian church in this city, and preached his first sermon to that congregation Sunday night. He will hereafter preach here on the second and fourth Sunday nights in each month. Rev. Taylor is also pastor of the church at Fairview, and preaches there the second and fourth Sunday mornings. He is a young minister of great promise, and the Pembroke congregation is fortunate in securing his services.—Pembroke Journal.

$1,500 Unexpected Legacy

Mr. John W. Hays, of Texas, Ky., held policy No. 210,711 in the

THE MUTUAL - BENEFIT

Life Insurance Co.,

OF NEWARK, N. J.

Issued to him Dec. 1st, 1894. After making 5 payments on same at a net cost of $204.40, Mr. Hays, on Dec. 1, 1899, allowed policy to lapse. He died Nov. 13, 1902, nearly 4 years after making his last payment on his policy. His widow was very much surprised and gratified to learn that under the Company's non-forfeiture system, the policy had been extended 5 years and 28 days, and to promptly receive a check for $1,500 for herself and children.

A Mutual Benefit

Policy where two years' premiums have been paid protects a man's family when by neglect, carelessness, inability or sickness his policy lapses.

Mr. J. G. Cooper will write on "Ghosts and Folk Lore."

Mr. Chas. M. Meacham will have a historical paper on "Paul Jones."

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Honeymoon", Then Jule Foreman Musical Comedy Co.

Charlotte Burnett, whose charming work in "Twelfth Night" and "When Knighthood Was in Flower", will be long remembered, is to come to us in a new production; the brightest and most exciting of all comedies—"The Honeymoon". The play is one in which Miss Burnett scores from start to finish as the part of the wilful, mischievous, yet fascinating bride, Juliana is exactly suited to her; she has the winning beauty, grace; the archness and dash of devilry to make her the embodiment of the sparkling little heroine. Not only has Miss Burnett's stage training been of the finest, with Richard Mansfield, Julia Marlowe and Daniel Frohman's Empire Stock Co., but she is a college graduate of Wellesley. Miss Burnett's costumes, as well as the entire company's, are correct historically, by Worth of Paris, and Van Horn of New York. At the Holland's Opera House on Tuesday, Oct. 31.

Fun, Music and Pretty Maidens in Cinderella

Manager Alley is congratulating himself on his success in securing a suitable support for Miss Jule Foreman in "Cinderella." When discussing the matter a few days ago, Mr. Alley said: "Not more than half the productions offered on the stage these days prove a success, and managers agree that the vehicle and the support is more responsible for this than any other thing. I have had this in mind in selecting a cast for 'Cinderella' and the other comedy productions to be offered by the Jule Foreman Musical Comedy Company, and I congratulate myself in the fact that I have a suitable character in every role. The character of 'Cinderella' is exacting, and the one acting the part must not only be small, pretty and possess dramatic qualities, but must possess voice. In Miss Foreman I think I have an ideal Cinderella. In selecting the other twenty-four members I have kept in view the story itself. A ballroom without pretty women suits an audience, and without handsome, athletic men there is that much lacking. In the cast of twelve girls and thirteen men I have a suitable member for every character in the story. Eight chorus girls work with the four principals. A strong quartette, four comedians, and handy men support the 'Prince and his aides. New music has been written for the production, and I now feel that the revival of 'Cinderella' will meet public favor from the first." At opera house Nov. 1 and 2, also matinee Thursday.

SOCIETY OF EQUITY.

Will Hold Important Meeting
November 6th.

The American Society of Equity will hold a meeting at the court house in Hopkinsville Monday, Nov. 6. Every farmer in the county is invited to come and take a part, as our plans are perfect and we must make a compact organization in each county. All that is necessary is to establish a price on all crops and sell at the barn, crib or granary. Make the price on the farm.

Facts About Syringes.

There are two facts to keep in mind when buying a syringe:

1. Get one that can be depended upon—one with the last improvements.

2. Syringes rot out oftener than they wear out. Get one that will last—one made of pure rubber.

We have syringes that will satisfy you in both respects. They are made from pure Pass Rubber; are fitted with all the latest attachments and are guaranteed to be perfect, both in material and workmanship. Further, they will cost you no more than the inferior kinds.

An Eskimo Girl's Ball Dress.

When an Eskimo young lady goes to a ball she is a gorgeous sight to gaze upon. A traveler reports just how a belle was dressed on such an occasion.

Her dress was made of the intestines of a seal, split and sewed together. This makes a transparent garment and the girl trimmed it with elaborate embroidery of colored wools and fringed it with strings of beads.

Her trousers white and made of Siberian reindeer skin embroidered with strips of wolf skin and strips of beads. Heavy necklaces and pendants of beads and teeth of animals hung around her neck and over her shoulders.

Snow-white gloves made of fawn skin were on her hands. These fitted perfectly and were ornamented with strips of skin from some animal—perhaps the seal. To complete this elaborate outfit this Eskimo belle carried long eagle feathers, one in each hand, which she waved as she danced.—Washington Star.

NOW FOR COMFORT.

Steam Heat Takes Place of Stoves at Court House.

Farwell to freezing corridors, soot and fire poking at the court house in Hopkinsville Monday, Nov. 6. The Forbes Manufacturing Co., contractors for putting in the heating apparatus in the jail and court house, completed their contract yesterday and turned on the steam. Everything save a few leaks at the pipe connection worked all right and the entire building was soon rendered comfortable from the radiator. The money expended was one of the wisest appropriations ever made by the fiscal court.

WEDDED AT LOUISVILLE

Prison Commissioner Mc-Cutchen Captures a Bride.

Miss Sue McHenry and Mr. Harvey McCutchen were married Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McHenry, in Louisville.

Owing to a recent death in the bride's family the wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the young couple being present.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Chinn, of Frankfort.
Mr. and Mrs. McCutchen left immediately afterwards for New York, where they will remain for ten days before going to Russellville to reside.

Mr. McCutchen is a member of the State Board of Prison Commissioners, and is an exceedingly capable and accomplished man. Mrs.
McCutchen is a charming and attractive girl, with a wide circle of acquaintances throughout the state.

SOMETHING FINE.

Confectionery and Restaurant on Ninth Street.

Messrs. Burrus & Walton have leased the East room in the Mayson block on Ninth street for their confectionery and restaurant. Ladies will be glad to learn that their restaurant is to be entirely disconnected from the other rooms of the large building. The new firm will open up about Nov. 15th, with the finest line of goods to be bought in their line. Their soda fountain will be one of the nicest in this section.

New Front.

The Garnett building, 8th and Main streets, is to be ready for occupancy by December 1st. The old front is to be taken out and replaced with circular windows.

No More Blockades.

There will be no more cause for blockades at Main and Ninth streets.
The sewerage contractors finished work there yesterday and removed all obstructions.

is absolutely air tight and will hold fire for 24 to 36 hours.
Will burn slack as well as lump coal. The cut above shows the sectional fire pot with slotted linings, an entirely new feature in heating stoves. All grades of soft coal and also slack can be burned in this fire pot without smoke or soot.
